Meet 2020-2021 Class Member | Edward Valdez | Crum-Halsted

Edward is new to the Crum-Halsted team but is eager to make a big impression on the insurance industry. Edward was the founder of Movement Transforms – an athletic training and mentorship organization. Edward spent years helping people transform themselves and improve their physical health; he hopes he can apply the knowledge he's gained over the years to helping businesses transform and improve their financial health through proper insurance strategies and risk management. Edward's love of athletics stems from his involvement in wrestling from a young age, he is now the assistant wrestling coach at West Chicago High School and is actively involved in Beat the Streets – a nonprofit that helps empower the youth of Chicago by establishing wrestling programs in communities in need. Edward also enjoys golfing, spending time with his family, and stretching his artistic muscles. He enjoys playing bass, dancing, and art as much as enjoys working out and helping others grow.
